

Dillon's Resume

General Content

- I do tend to partake in different hobbies. One of such is fishing with my friends.
- I also tend to like working on art projects and other various means of creative expression.
- I also volunteer at a pet shelter where I watch cats to socialize them for new families looking to adopt.

- I usually spend most of my time doing school work or watching YouTube when I'm not doing any other recreational activities
- I am currently studying for Web Development with an Associates in Applied Sciences, and within the next year, I should graduate with my Associates
- I enjoy helping other people, but I tend to have high anxiety which tends to make me second guess myself and I tend to worry a lot, even about things that probably won't happen
